

Senior Construction Project Manager

At Performance Services Inc. we are currently experiencing significant growth and are seeking a qualified Senior Project Manager.

Key duties of the Senior Project Manager include but are not limited to: providing leadership to assigned projects in regards to maintaining positive customer relationships, involvement with estimating and providing supervision to subcontractors in order to achieve a successful, safe project that is completed on time and within budget.

Essential Job Functions:

- Providing assistance in the estimating process to the Engineering/ Estimating team.
- Writing and awarding contracts.
- Planning and scheduling for proper staffing of assigned projects.
- Ensuring the project is constructed in accordance with the contract requirements.
- Maintaining excellent communication with the customer and entire project team.
- Providing overall leadership to the project team to ensure a safe, profitable & timely completed project.
- Providing overall contract administration throughout close-out of assigned projects.

Requirements:

- 6-10 years experience in commercial construction.
- Experience in Design Build methodology of project development is a plus.
- 4-year degree or industry experience equivalent preferred.
- Background in Educational and Commercial construction.

Compensation:

- Salary commensurate with experience
- Benefits include medical, dental, optical and 401K
- Company provided vehicle
- Annual bonus plan